

barriedale operahouse initiations a multimedia sting of a new generation spring loaded 1997

barriedale operahouse (boh) is a young, creative company which boldly strives to break new ground within the realms of art, commerce and entertainment. a central directive group based in greenwich, leads an ever-increasing u.k. and european team of collaborative performers, multi-media artists, technicians and the barriedale operahouse dance company, to produce projects of exceptional quality, innovation and impact. barriedale operahouse initiations commercialise their creativity, professional expertise and innovation to provide several unique services.

www.barriedale-operahouse.com

